Spirit of A.H.S.

DEDICATION

MRS J. W. HOLLAND

It is with warm affection and a lasting respect that we dedicate to Mrs. Holland our 1964 HOUR GLASS. In her geometry classes, Mrs. Holland displays her understanding of students and their problems and she is always willing to help any student. We all know how Mrs. Holland has taken a personal interest in the Student Council. Her efforts as sponsor of this organization make her contribution to our school even more significant. Our hope is that a little of her spirit and sense of service will go with us throughout our lives.

FOREWORD

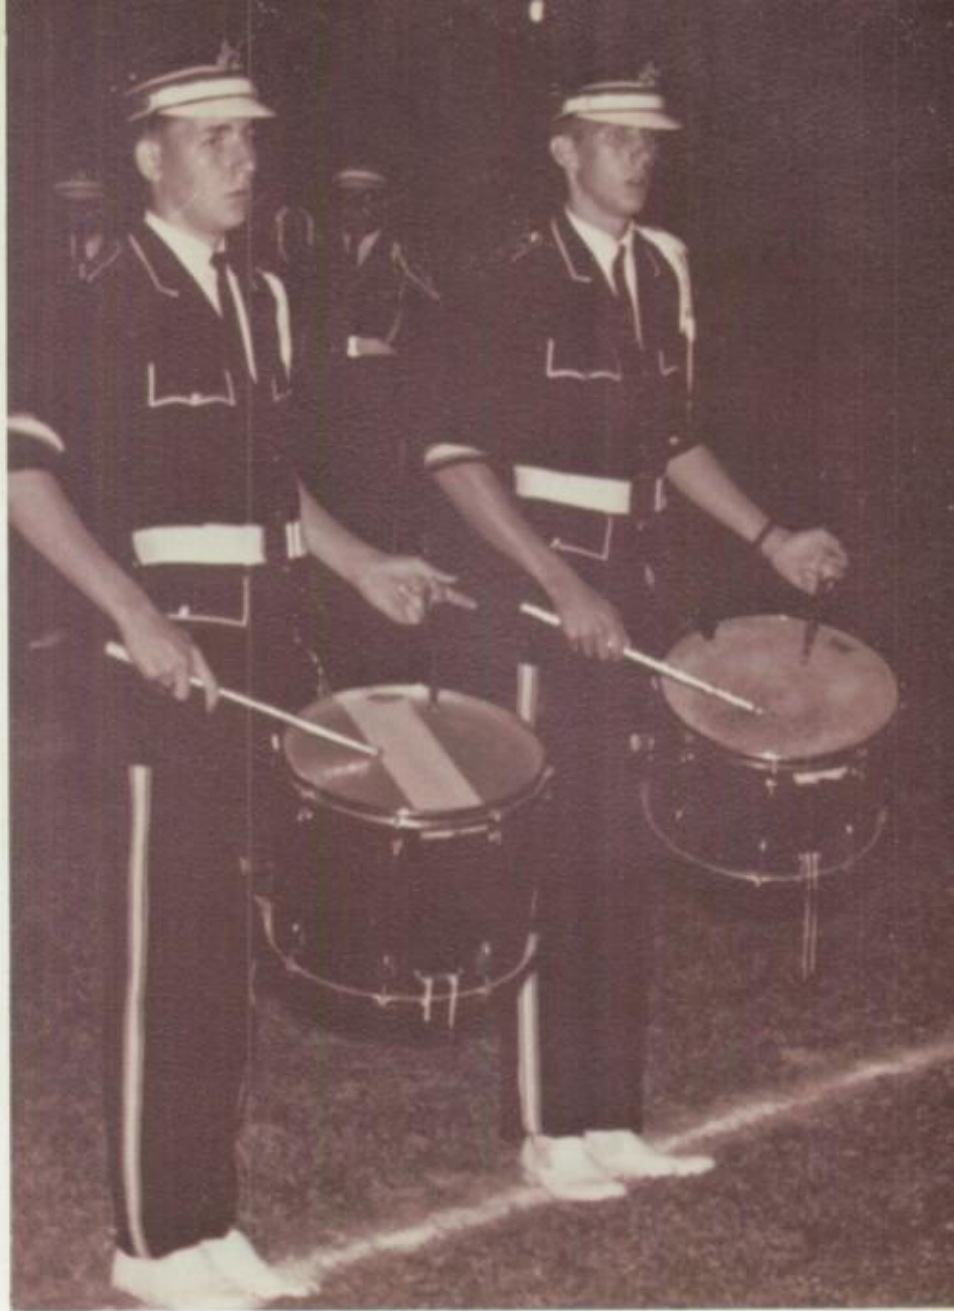

We are bound together as one by the spirit that has captured everyone who has been a part of Anniston High School. This spirit, which lies deep within us, constitutes our feeling of pride, love, and gratitude toward A. H. S. It is this same spirit which has inspired us to learn and has encouraged us to prepare for the years to come. Finally, it is this spirit which has caused us to participate . . . in our school games, in clubs, and in many other activities. We, the staff, have worked in a cheerful atmosphere to record and immortalize for you, a year which has been filled with excitement, thought, and pleasant association. We hope there remains with you a feeling and a spirit of satisfaction — knowing that all good things which can possibly be crammed into one year have been put into this one. It is a year now committed to these pages of the past. This book should present life as it was lived in '64 . . . the friends, personalities, and events. It should portray "An Echo Of The Spirit Of A. H. S."

An ovation such as Anniston High has never heard, reasserted our pride in Sara Henderson Hay, the author of our Alma Mater and one of the great women poets of the United States. Her grace, charm, and delicacy of manner went straight to the hearts of our student body. Her readings from "The Story Hour" awakened us from our complacency and reaffirmed our belief that poetry speaks for all men. The presence of Charles Martin, minister of Parker Memorial Baptist Church, was calming to us after the recent emotional aftermath of President Kennedy's death.

A carefree spirit emerged as classes dismissed for the weekend and we all prepared for our first football game. This game led into other pep rallies, and our spirits were kept high by our active cheerleaders. Their skits and assemblies encouraged us to support our Bulldogs. Then at each game we listened with pride as our band formed a huge "A" and played our Alma Mater. Our spirits were still high at the dances following most of the games. The Student Council first sponsored a dance for our foreign exchange student, Pat. Then many other clubs and groups furnished well-known bands and we all gathered at the Legion Hall.

The long-awaited homecoming weekend arrived after many hours of work on our class floats. Our enthusiasm was evident as we rode in the parade Saturday morning.

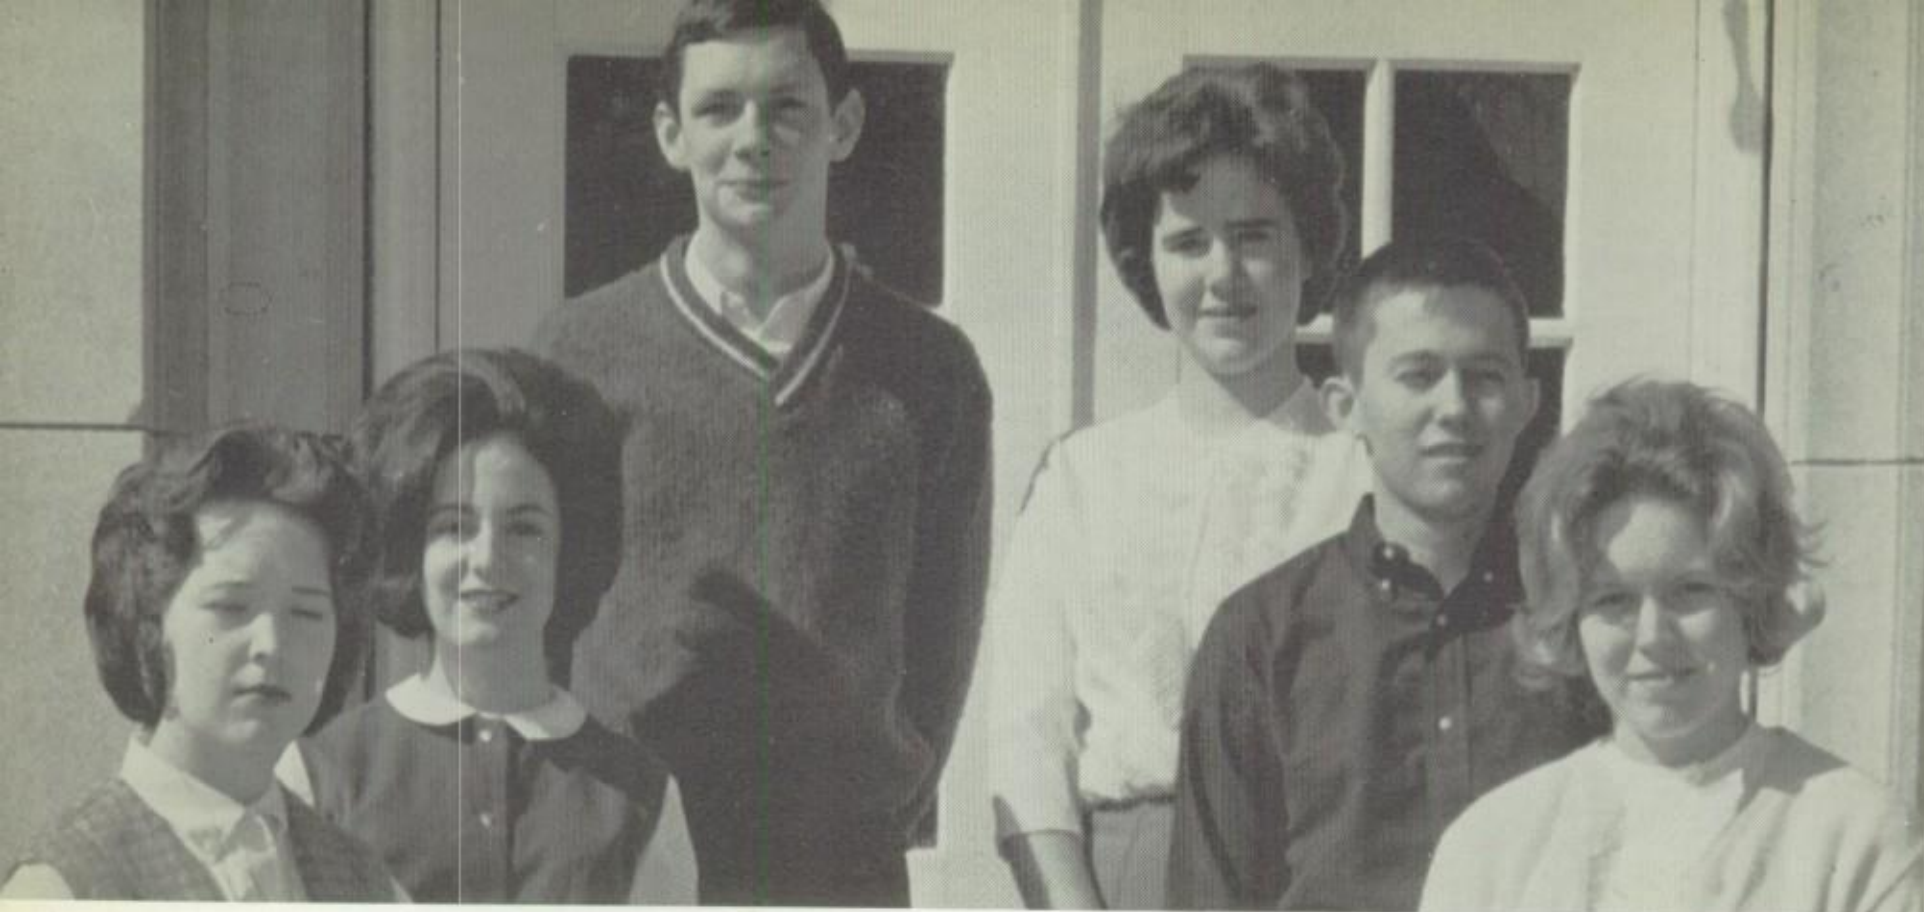

Everyone at A. H. S. participated in our homecoming from the decorating of club cars to the selling of A. H. S. carnations.

Our play production classes entertained us several times during the year with special plays and assemblies. A few days before Christmas holidays, the play production classes presented "Vidio Christmas." Our Who's Who play especially delighted us; while the basic theme of this play was serious, it's light tone, which the characters superbly displayed, made this play a complete success.

Who's Who brought a special excitement to everyone. While we may have had our own ideas before the night, we were thrilled at the final outcome of each honor.

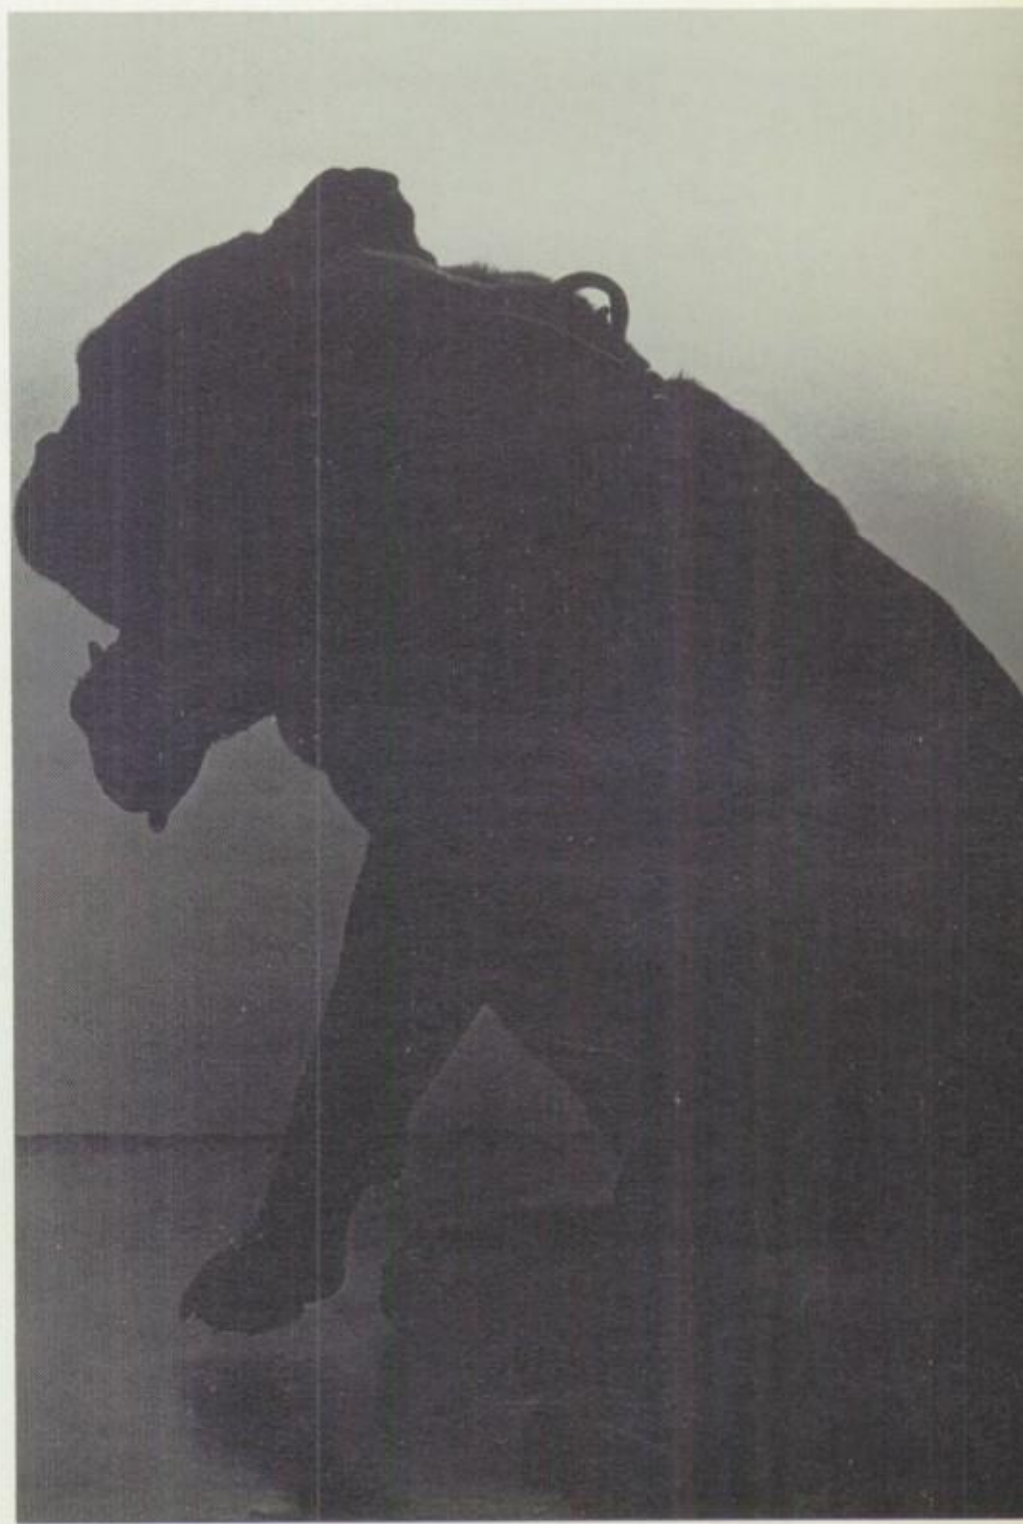

Our magazine sale this year was a tremendous success. Seniors supported the sale with much enthusiasm, and tried to sell the most ever. The six seniors above were named as our top salesmen, and we are grateful to them for their efforts.

Throughout the year we as students gathered together in our school clubs and various other groups to participate in programs and projects to benefit our community. As future leaders of Anniston, we have taken responsibility in such civic programs as polio drive.

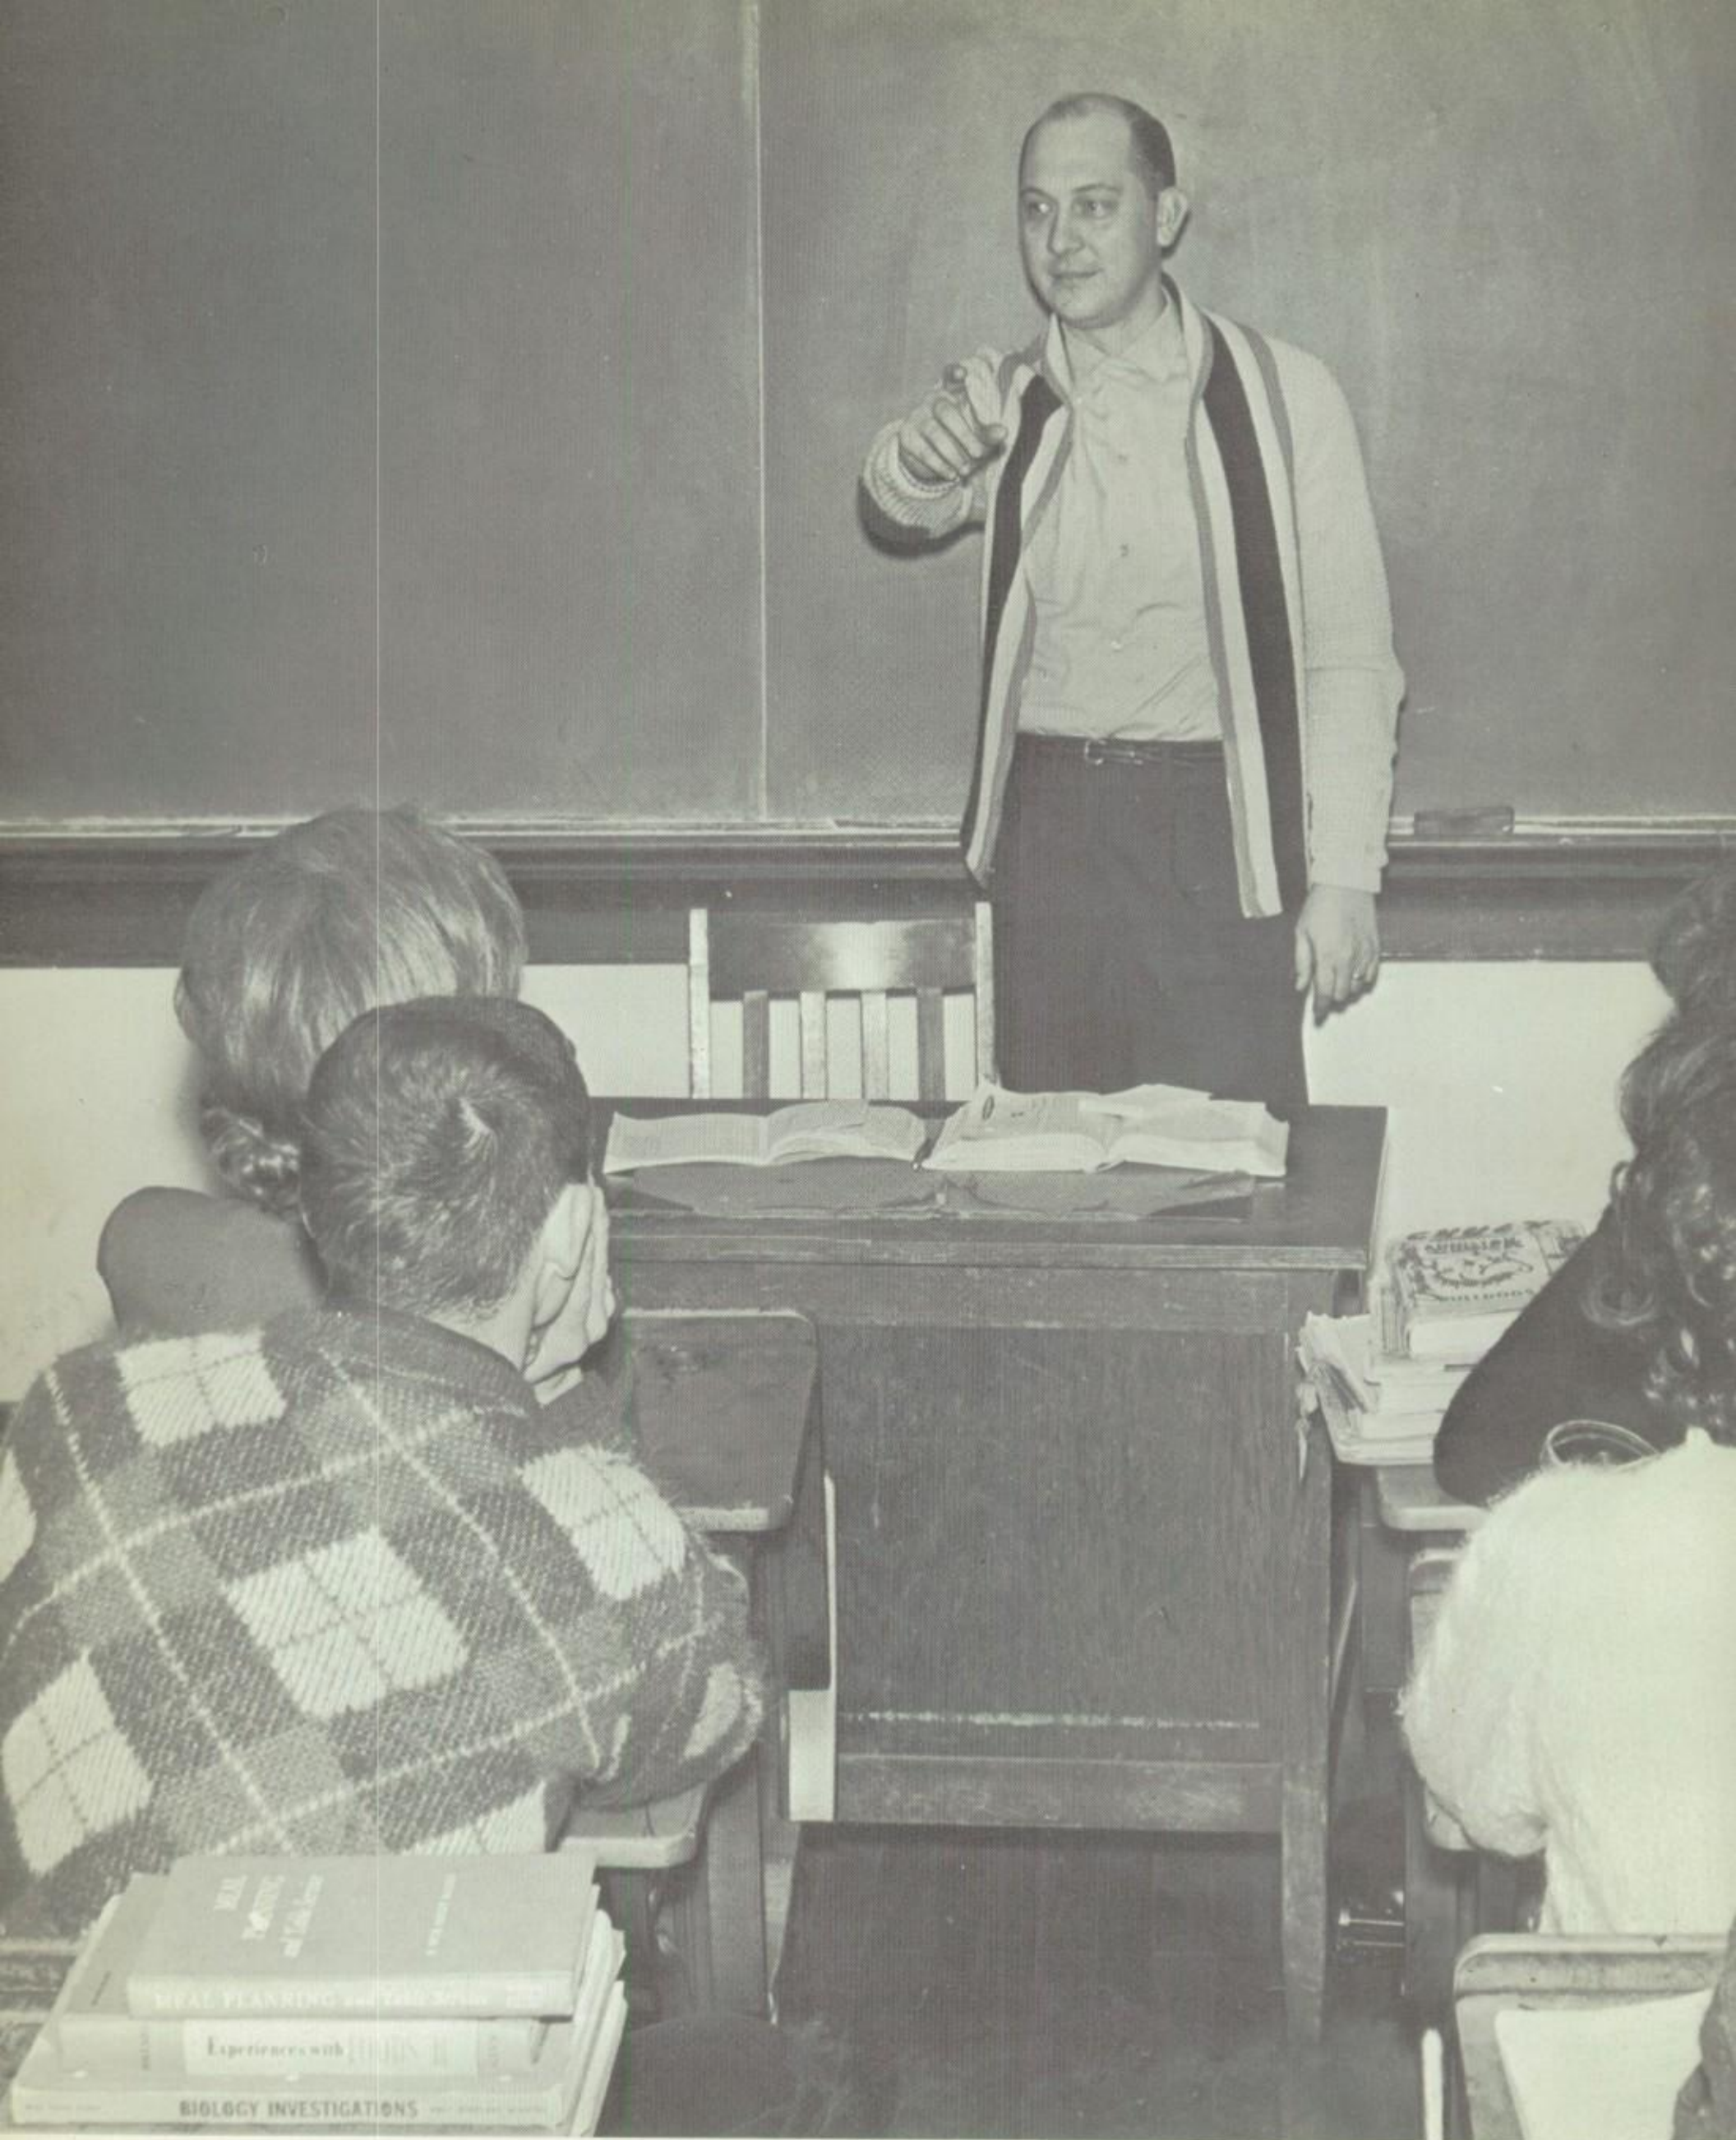

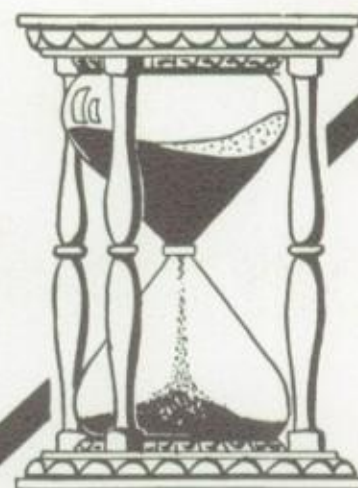

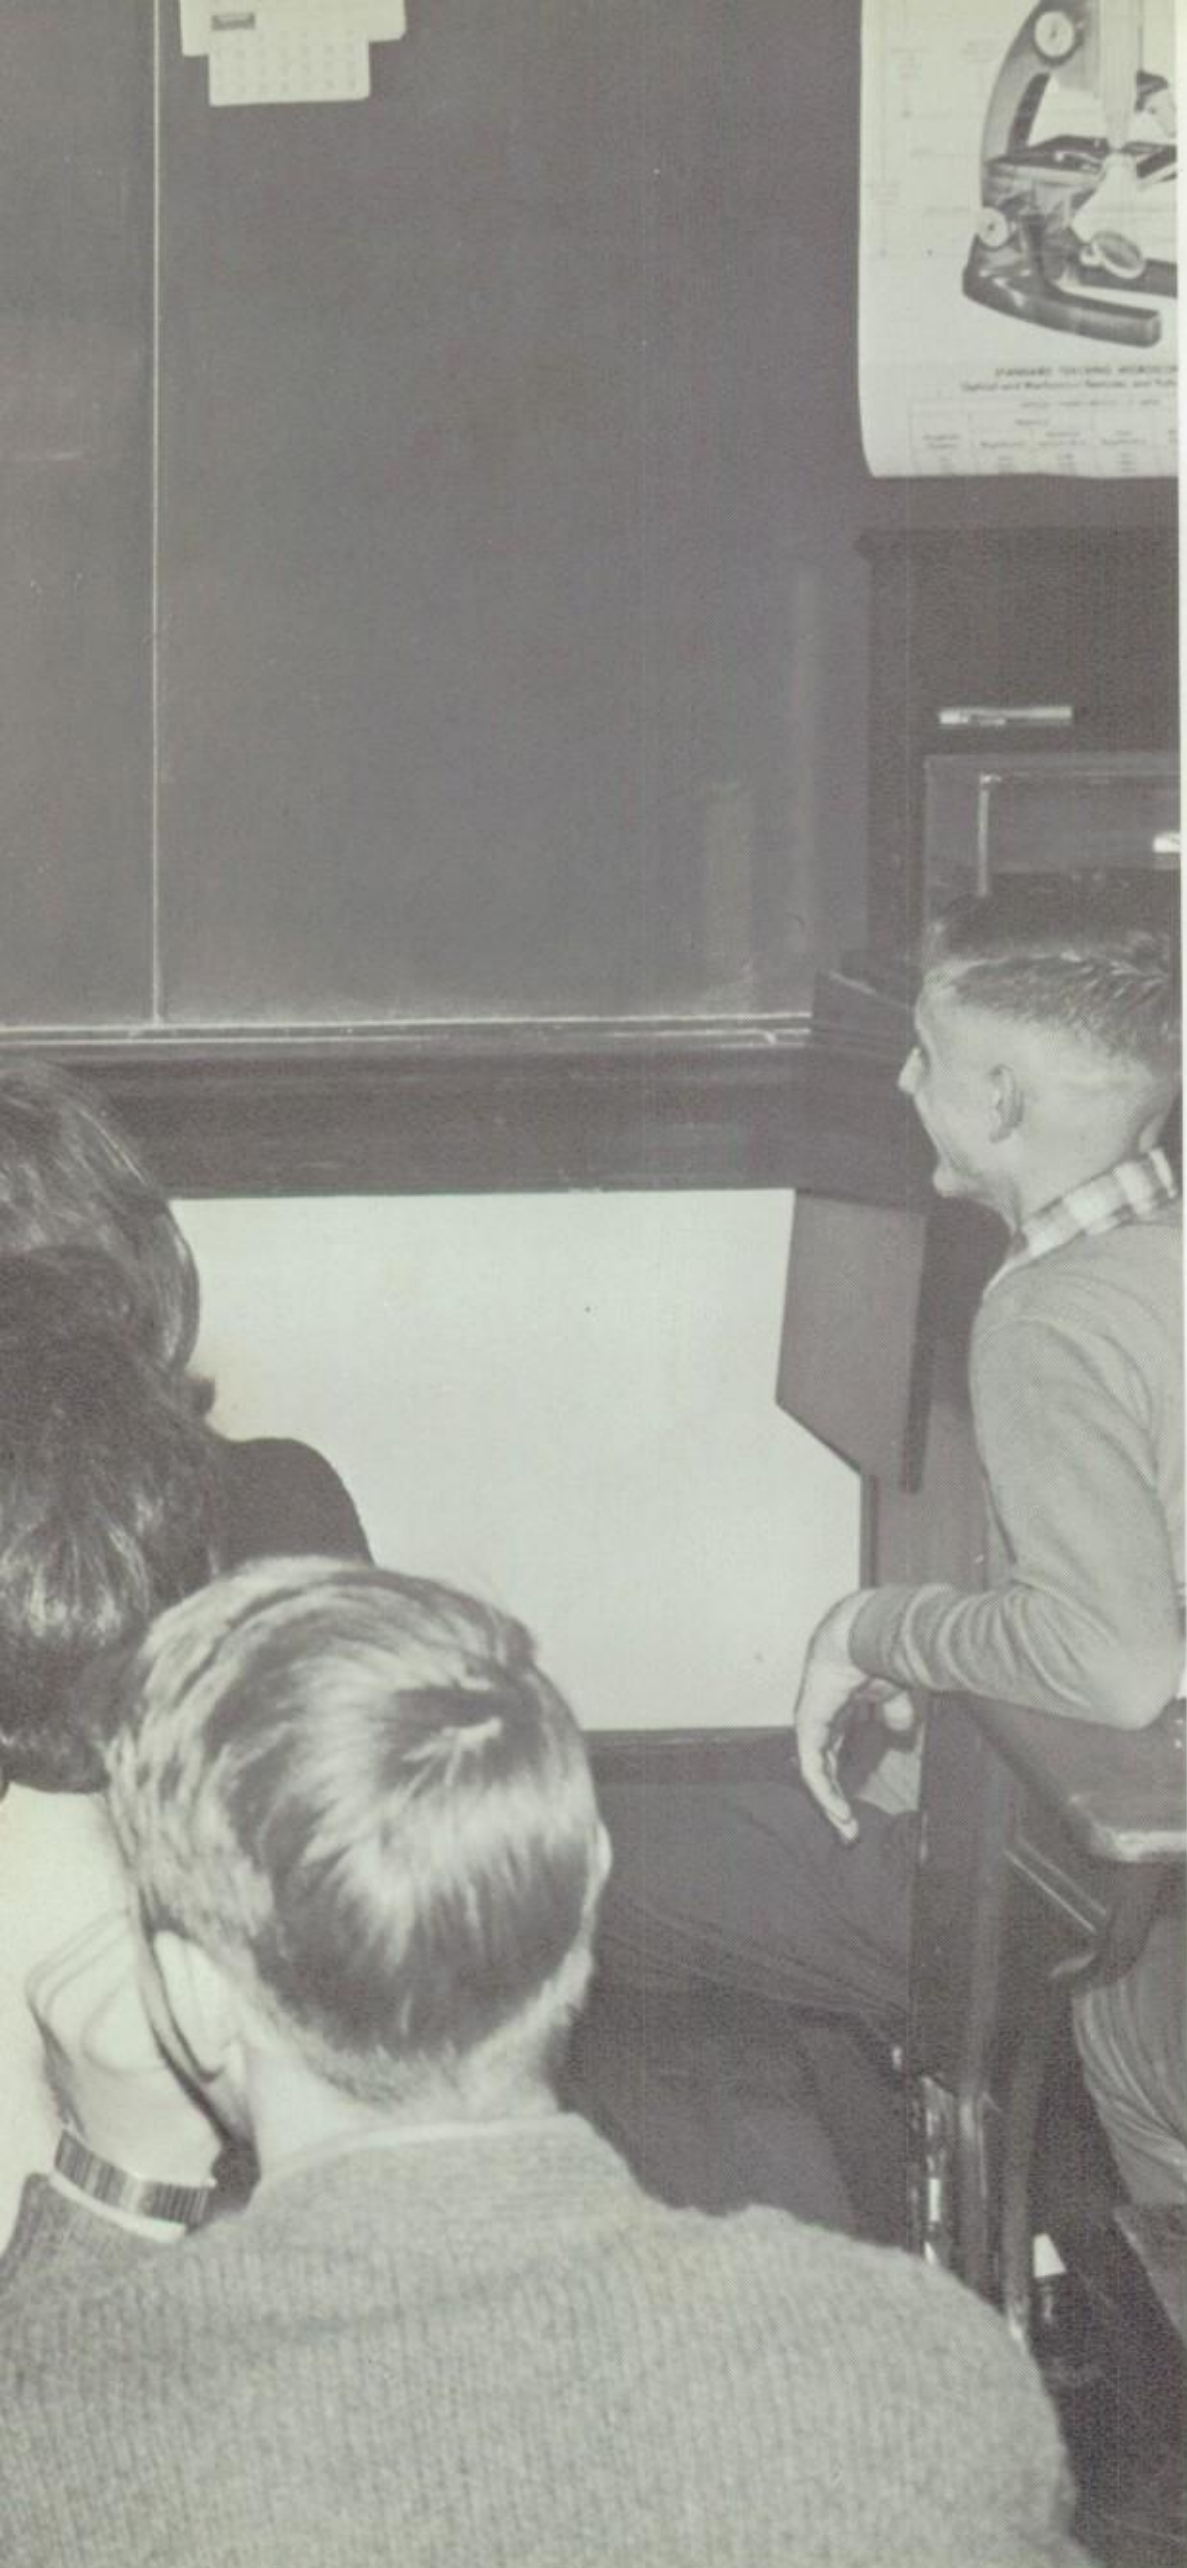

As students, we gain satisfaction in meeting the challenge of our academic classes. We all have a great interest in our nation and its future, and we are eager to prepare ourselves for our future years.

To our Bulldog, we give a salute. He is a symbol of the atmosphere and the spirit of our school—that place where we experienced friendship, hours of study, academic achievements, and leadership achievements.

An Echo Of The

FACULTY AND ACADEMIC

A spirit of shared pride in our school this year has brought students and teachers closer together. The teachers' interest is evident in their participation in activities both in and out of school. In school a student's understanding and enthusiasm brings to our teachers satisfaction mingled with relief. A student's willingness to learn results in patient explanation. Evidence of our teachers' interest in after-school activities is noted in their attendance at A.H.S. games; also many of our teachers sponsor school clubs. By stimulating our desire to learn and by guiding our minds, our teachers are ever teaching us to live.

TRATION

Mr. Samuel Courtney Doss, Jr.
Jacksonville State College, University of Alabama, Auburn, B.S.,
M.A.

By his genuine interest in the accomplishments of A.H.S. students, Mr. Doss has won a place in the lives and hearts of all of us. As principal he is the faithful executor of many duties; he has worked with patience and understanding to guide the students in their quest for knowledge. His wholesome outlook on life will encourage students of Anniston High School in our future.

Mrs. Lewis Gray
Secretary to the Principal

Mrs. Kathleen Brummel
Assistant Principal
University of Alabama, A.B.

Any time Mrs. Gray is ready to assist students and teachers with their problems. Her help is a necessity to our school, and we would be lost without her.

From her first duty of filling out absentee slips to her last duty of the day, Mrs. Brummel shows her untiring attempt to do what is best for all of us. In her good humored spirit, Mrs. Brummel devotes herself to our school and for our benefit. As the years go on, we will look back and thank her for her great service to us.

ENGLISH

Mrs. Murray has reminded her classes, "The most intelligent person is of no importance to society if he isn't able to express himself clearly." Since English forms the basis for clear expression and for a sound education, all students are required to take three years of English. In the picture at the right Mrs. Murray reviews the corrections made by sophomores, Susan Kilgore and Mary Carr, on their English themes. In addition to learning the techniques of writing compositions, sophomores study Julius Caesar and Silas Marner, among other works.

ENGLISH

Dangling participles, gerund or split infinitive? Mrs. Sharp's junior English class contemplate the intricacies of English grammar as they study verbal nouns and adjectives. The new English books have proved to be an excellent aid; they serve as a guide for writing paragraphs and compositions, using the library, as well as using correct grammatical constructions. Juniors study American literature from the first colony writers to the present writers. English teachers also stress public speaking as well as formal writing.

ENGLISH

Sam Cox and Mary Burlee explain the setting of an Elizabethan stage. The study of literature for the Senior includes Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, and Shakespeare's Macbeth. Seniors learn English literature from Anglo-Saxon time to the present. By the senior year, students at A.H.S. have become very familiar with the forms of grammar, so that the grammar in senior English is mainly a review of the previous years. This year the English department has achieved its goal which is to help students listen to others intelligently and to read widely so that their understanding of problems will be much greater.

FRENCH

The major aim of the foreign language department is to promote a better understanding among the countries in the world. Under the guidance of Mrs. French, the French students gain an excellent knowledge of the basic language. French is often called "the language of the diplomats" and it is necessary for any type of foreign service. These students often sing songs and study literature in order to better understand the language.

LATIN

Mrs. Gibson's Latin classes first develop a vocabulary; studies in translation follow. These students also study philosophy and the fine arts. An understanding of the histories and customs of these foreign people is attained by a study of their culture. Although some people consider Latin a dead language, many colleges prefer it to modern languages.

SPANISH

The language laboratory is a classroom devoted to learning by listening. Students benefit by listening to the speaker's pronunciation and accent. First year Spanish students learn vocabulary while second year students and third year students concentrate on grammar and tenses of verbs. The department meets the needs of the students to know how the language is spoken as well as to know how the people live. Frequently the students perform skits which add to the variety of the program.

The math department aims to teach the structure and techniques of mathematics. Advanced general math includes the basic ideas of business arithmetic. Algebra II is taught to introduce more advanced concepts. An understanding of the basic theorems in geometry aids in developing logical thinking and correct conclusions. Algebra III students and trigonometry students pursue the higher forms of math.

More today than ever, there is a greater demand for scientists. General science gives a basic foundation for biology, physics, and chemistry. Biology students become familiar with such terms as photosynthesis. The chemistry students speak of nucleus, elements and those hundreds of formulas. Mrs. Gibbons teaches her physiology students the functions of the body organs. The physics students, under the direction of our new teacher, Mr. Rasco, became familiar with Archimedes' principle and Pascal's principle.

GOVERNMENT

The government department maintains the theory, "By learning more about the principles of democracy, we can become better citizens." Government students find news magazines helpful in their discussion of current events. The second semester economics course teaches students the principles of our economic system as well as the economic systems of various countries in Europe.

AMERICAN HISTORY

Here Mrs. McClinton points out several United States cities on the map. The American history students have weekly current events in order that all students may keep up-to-date on important world events. Only by realizing the mistakes of our ancestors can we be prepared to lead our country.

WORLD HISTORY

Coach Wells' world history classes learn about ancient civilizations—from Egyptian to our modern civilizations. Coach Wells also stresses the importance of news articles daily; world problems are discussed and the students are urged to express their opinions.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS TEACHES BY TOOLS

Mr. B. W. Key

Subject: Machine Shop.

Mr. A. F. Self

University of Alabama, B.S.; Subjects: Radio, Electricity, Mechanical Drawing, Woodwork.

Mr. Eldred J. Stovall

Subject: Automotive Mechanics.

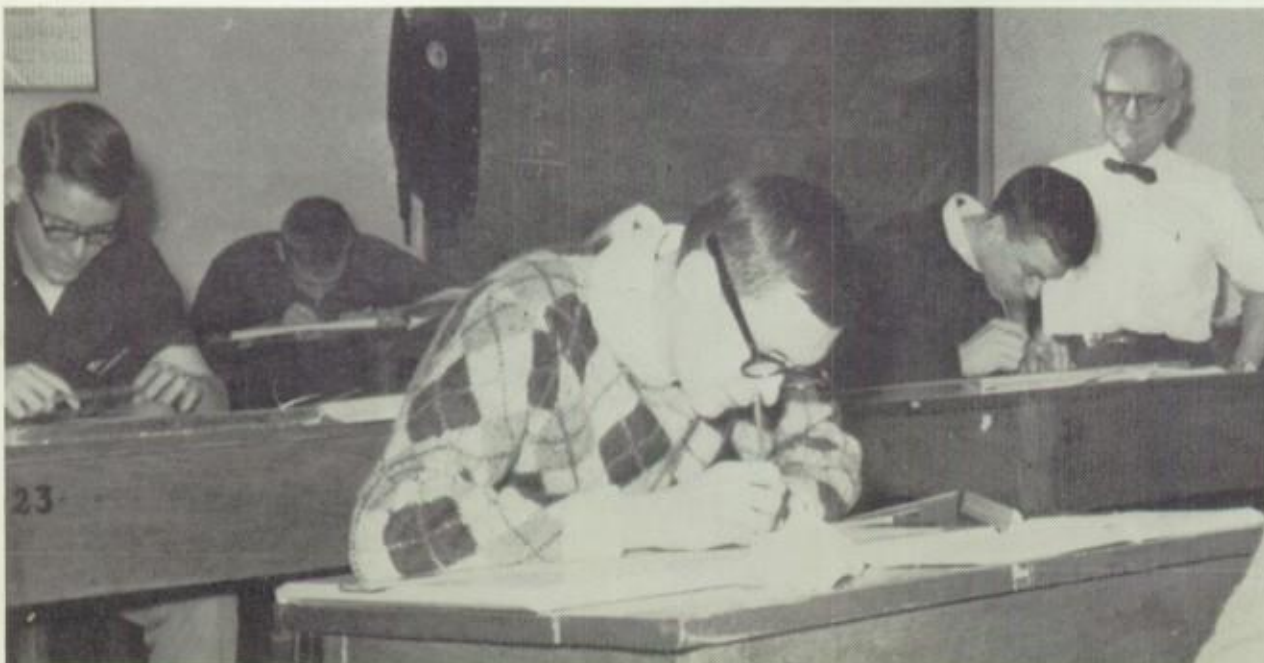

MACHINE SHOP and AUTO MECHANICS

Auto mechanics, under the guidance of Mr. Stovall, and machine shop, taught by Mr. Key, are two of our vocational subjects. Students gain a knowledge of the different parts of machines and how they operate. The shop program helps students work directly—through participation and experience. These courses demand trained minds and skilled hands.

RADIO AND ELECTRICITY

This course is one of our principal courses for boys interested in electrical machinery. The department instructs students in the use of electrical devices and material they may need in the vocational field they choose. Mr. Self gives help in teaching students the importance of electricity in our world.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

You can always spot a mechanical drawing student by the T square that he carries with him. The T square along with other building materials compose the tools that this student needs. Mechanical drawing is an essential course to boys considering the architectural field. Admiral Cater, who is very experienced in this field, teaches this course.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT COUNSELS STUDENTS

Mr. John J. Nash
Jacksonville State,
University of Alabama,
University of Colorado,
B.S., M.A.; Subject:
Guidance Director;
Sponsor: Key Club

Through the guidance program, assistance is given to students and to their parents concerning educational and vocational planning. Mr. Nash renders aid to students with their academic problems and coordinates the testing programs of the school. Students are urged to utilize the services offered by this department. College catalogues are found on display to aid high school seniors.

During the day, many individuals enter the library seeking knowledge and enjoyment through the abundant resources that the library offers. Mr. Hicks and Mrs. Seewagen and their assistants are always willing to help.

D. E. AND D. O. STUDENTS PLAN FOR FUTURE

Mr. George C. Deavors
University of Alabama, B.S.
Subject: Distributive Education
Sponsor: D.E. Club

The distributive education class is made up of members of the junior and senior classes. The class develops these future leaders in marketing and distribution. Academic courses, which the students have until noon each day, are of vital importance in job training.

Mr. Gilbert Adams
Jacksonville State, B.S.
Subjects: Diversified
Occupations

Each day the D.O. students gain background knowledge before going to their place of employment. This class develops the student's knowledge of the D.O. program and gives him further training in his vocational choice.

HOME ECONOMICS

Subject: Band; Jacksonville State, B.S. Add one teaspoon of salt—or was that one tablespoon? Girls in our home economics department face small dilemmas such as this everyday. Through a study of clothing, foods and personal appearance, the girls become more familiar with homemaking.

Play production students receive valuable experience by participating in plays and talking in front of audiences. By learning how to put together good plays, students learn how to express themselves more clearly.

Students interested in any type of music are urged to take choral. Under the guidance of Prof. Jackson, the choral class gains a deeper appreciation for music. This course includes the study of melody, rhythm, and simple harmony.

JOURNALISM

The journalism course strives to teach the students literary writing and to develop their abilities. Mrs. Hall, our new Hi-Echo sponsor, is very familiar with newspaper work and has been a tremendous help with the school publications.

A basic aim of Mrs. Marbut's physical education department is to keep the girls healthy and alert. In volleyball, basketball, tumbling, and baseball, the girls improve their coordination and grace.

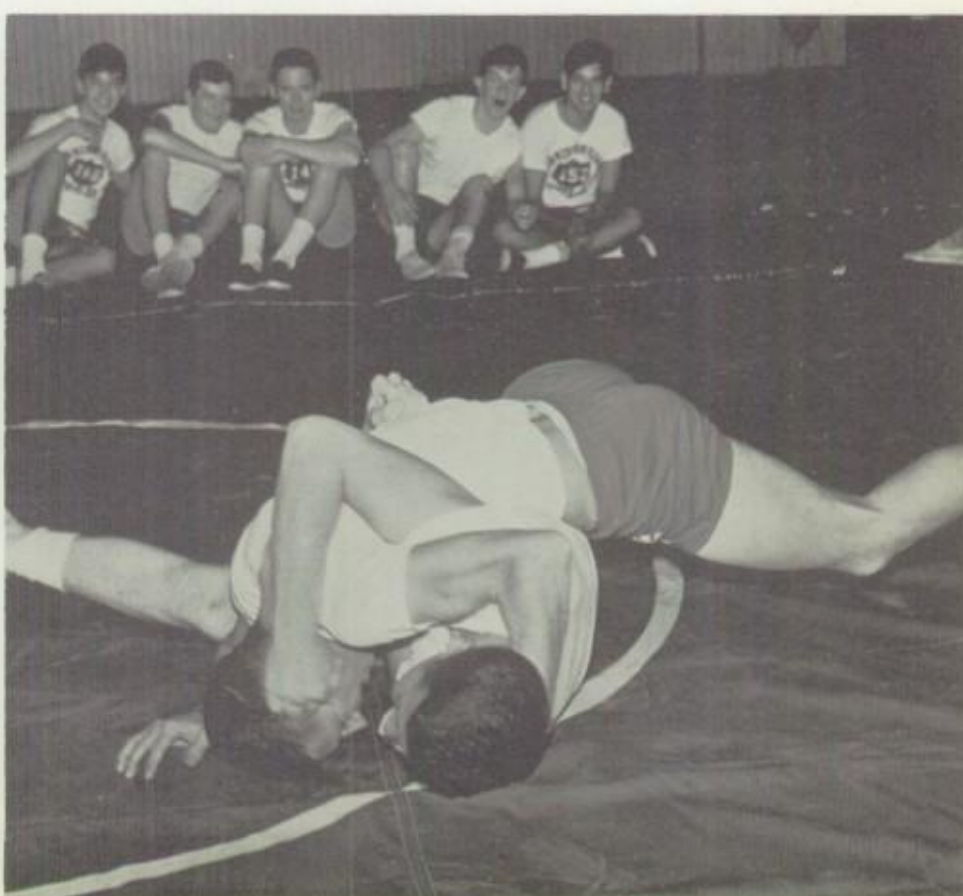

Since physical education is being stressed in so many of the nation's schools, Coach Nix tries to provide the best for our boys' physical education department. This year the department has added wrestling to its program. The new mat is a great asset.

BUSINESS COURSES DEVELOP DEXTERITY

Typing is a skill requiring a keen mind and nimble fingers. Both speed and accuracy are emphasized in the typing courses. Speed tests which the students take are tedious but they help the individual to become more proficient.

Mrs. Deerman often dictates a lesson to her shorthand students. In the secretarial field, shorthand is almost a necessity.

Effective studies in word usage, punctuation, and letter writing highlights a few of the topics covered in the business law and training courses. Mr. F. L. Johnson attempts to familiarize each student with legal forms and terms.

Realizing neatness and accuracy are two very important fundamentals of bookkeeping. Students receive a thorough knowledge of the basic principles of bookkeeping in the first year and the more advanced phases are introduced to the students taking a second year of this course.

An Echo Of The

SENIORS

A new year, a new step, a new beginning—how inquiring were our minds—then the middle link filled with unrestrained energies, now more than ever the desire to serve and the desire for wisdom—finally the sudden realization that time is slipping by—three years drawing to a close and we are graduating seniors. As we look ahead, we see that our decisions about the future must be made; we are ready to accept our responsibilities and devote ourselves to another new beginning.

SENIOR MEMORIES

An Echo Of The

CLASSES

At A. H. S., companionship is a major part of the atmosphere. The friends made at A. H. S. constitute a part of each individual's life. Each separate picture represents a separate individual with his own personality and his own characteristics. With our underclassmen, rest A. H. S.'s future and tradition. In preparation for the duties of leadership, the underclassmen have accepted much of the responsibility for governing organizations and the student body.

An Echo Of The

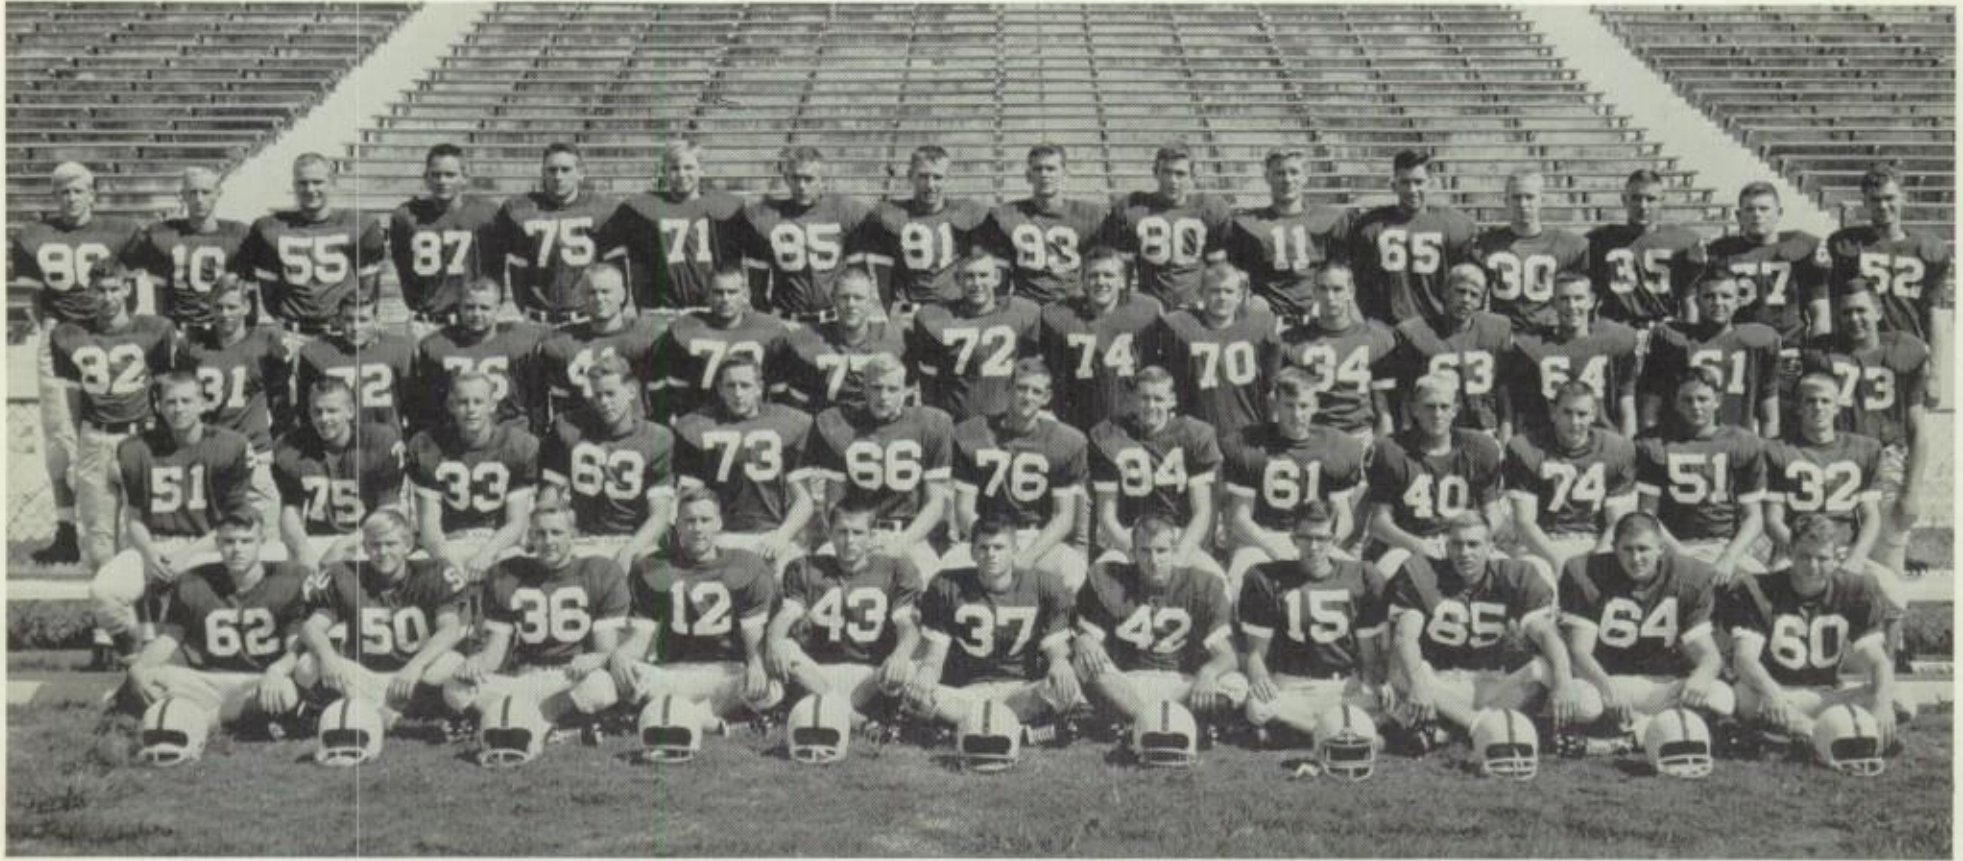

ATHLETICS

The competitive spirit is an indecisive thing. It can be seen and heard and felt through the struggle of contest. At A. H. S. the Athletic Department attempts to develop strong minds and bodies to build a foundation in sportsmanship. By participating in competitive sports, the youth of America can be strengthened in mental as well as physical growth. School spirit and unity are based on this part of education; the school is bound together by a common cause.

Pre-season ratings picked this year's grid team to be the best in recent years, but because of an extremely difficult schedule and many injuries the Bulldogs were unable to live up to their billing. This year's 4-6 record, however, is not a true indication of the quality of this '64 team. Their determination and never-give-up spirit produced many exciting games which could have been won at the last moment.

The Hour Glass respectfully dedicates its sports section to Coach F.L. Johnson upon his retiring after many years of loyal service to Anniston High athletics.

PELL CITY, 18-0

The '64 version of the A.H.S. Bulldogs came into the game determined to achieve a 1-0-0 record. They did just that as a near-capacity crowd watched the Bulldogs romp the Panthers 18-0. Receiving the kick-off, Anniston was stopped at the Pell City 25. Ogar brought life into the game by sprinting 75 yards for Anniston's first touchdown. Swafford's PAT being no good, the score was 6-0 at half-time.

Brook's 20-yard pass to Forbus gave Don a chance to out run the Panthers an additional 30 yards and to rack up the Bulldog's second touchdown. The PAT was no good. Recovering a fumbled kick-off return, the Bulldogs drove to the Panther's 1-yard line where Brooks went over to make the score 18-0. A bad PAT fixed this as the final score.

RONALD PEAK

OXFORD, 7-14

With a Pell City victory tucked under their belts, the Bulldogs faced the Yellow Jackets in Memorial Stadium. However, a fired-up Jacket team and Friday-the-13th proved to be too much for the mighty Anniston team.

After the ball changed hands a few times, a capacity crowd saw Don Ramey intercept a Doug Cotton pass and carry the ball 29 yards to the Oxford 11. This advance was stopped cold by rough Jacket line. Here Oxford took a 6-point lead.

Shull's bobbling the ball in the back field gave Oxford the ball on downs at the Bulldog 16. Oxford converted this mishap into 6 points.

Receiving the kick-off after half-time, Anniston brought the ball to their own 30-yard line. Eddy Ogar, coming over the right tackle, let loose with a 70-yard sprint to make the score 12-6. Anniston's good PAT and an Oxford safety wrapped up the score at 14-7.

GEORGE HOBLITZELL

ALBARTVILLE, 14-13

This night of glory proved to be a hard-earned one as the Bulldogs eked past the Aggies with a score of 14-13. Albartville chose to receive. Anniston took the ball away and went to the Aggie 35 before punting. After carrying the ball to the Anniston 37, the Aggies fumbled. Anniston recovered.

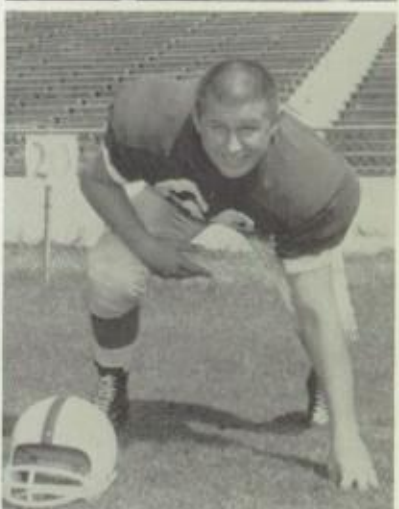

Ogar, going over the tackle, sped 63 yards to tally the first score of the game. Shull's PAT was good. The score—7-0.

Albartville secured 6 points with their fullback going over for the score. Clayton Dobbins, giving his best effort, blocked the Aggie's PAT. The half-time score stood at 7-6.

In the third quarter, the Bulldogs found themselves at the Aggie 20-yard line with the ball. Eddie Ogar carried the ball around right end and went all the way for 6 points. Shull added another point with a PAT making the score 14-6.

The Aggies got another 6 points on a pass play and collected a PAT. This summed up the scoring at 14-13.

The stars of the game for Anniston were Donald Forbus, Eddy Ogar, George Hoblitzell, Wayne Brooks, and Donnie Morrow.

ROBERT E. LEE, 0-29

Sim Byrd, Lee's quarterback, was too much for the Bulldogs in this game as Byrd proved himself one of the best passers Anniston has seen.

The Bulldogs, facing one of the state's largest teams, were a determined team that night. The stars of the game were Mike Tolleson, Don Forbus, and Wayne Brooks. Brooks, exhibiting a brilliant effort, connected on 8 of 18 passes to hold a good percentage against Lee.

Lee, receiving the kick-off, saw their first drive killed at the Anniston 21-yard line when Mike Tolleson intercepted a Lee pass.

The Bulldogs punted and Lee cashed in a T.D. Anniston got the ball but found the going rough. Keith Shull dropped a high snap while attempting to punt. The resulting touch-back cost Anniston two points.

Altogether it proved to be a disappointing night for the Bulldog team as Lee got six additional points within the next few plays.

The best Bulldog drive was killed on the Lee 12 by an intercepted pass.

The final score was recorded 29-0.

CLAYTON DOBBINS

KEITH SHULL

TUSCALOOSA, 0-10

With one of our best backs, Ronald Peak, side lined, Anniston played an excellent game against a big state power, Tuscaloosa.

Our leading rushers were Wayne Brooks, 36 yards; Eddy Ogar, 34 yards; Richard Stubbs, 33 yards; and Danny Locke, 32 yards.

Tuscaloosa, which was considered the best defensive team in the state, was held scoreless in the first half, as were the Bulldogs.

Twice the Bulldogs went deep into Bear territory only to see their efforts killed. Once on the Bear 15-yard line, the Bulldogs lost the ball on downs. Again, near the end of the first half, Anniston lost a pitchout deep in Bear territory. The Bears didn't get past the Bulldog 42-yard line in the first half.

In the second half, a fighting Bulldog team saw Tuscaloosa take a punt on the 4-yard line and cash it in for a T.D. The conversion was no good. A fumble on our 14-yard line set up Tuscaloosa's field goal. This sewed up the final score, 10-0.

RICHARD STUBBS

CHARLES BORDEN

EMMA SANSOM, 13-12

Ronald Peak lived up to pre-season predictions by doing everything but coach the Bulldogs as Anniston rolled on to tally its third victory of the season.

After spotting Sansom 12 points in the first half, Anniston came off the floor to collect 13 points in the second half. Peak scored both of the touchdowns on runs of eight and five yards. He also scored the PAT.

Peak picked up 125 yards on 17 trips as the Bulldogs "sucked 'em up". Other stars of the night were Don Forbus, Eddy Ogar, and Wayne Brooks. However, no few members of the team can be given full credit as the entire Bulldog team got together and really played football.

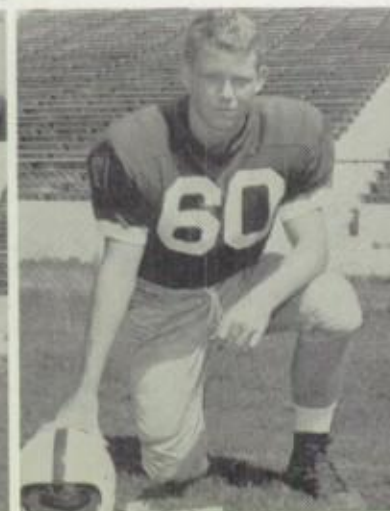

In the closing minutes of the game, Forbus intercepted a Rebel pass to wipe out Sansom's final threat.

GADSDEN, 13-14

The gala homecoming activities, including the traditional parade and bonfire, were almost completed when the Bulldogs turned to the homecoming game with Gadsden. A determined team of Bulldogs found themselves leading Gadsden by 13-7 in an early scoring effort. Danny Swafford made the first 7 points for Anniston by running back a blocked punt.

After a brilliant half-time show, the Bulldogs returned with a new determination only to find their efforts dampened by a third period fumble. Gadsden, taking advantage of this, went 53 yards to add another 7 points to their score.

The Bulldogs played well, but could not find a defense for David Beddingfield's passing. Shull's punting average was very impressive at 40 yards.

With time running out, Anniston recovered a fumble but couldn't do much with the ball. This clinched the score at 14-13.

The stars of the night were Eddy Ogar, Ronald Peak, Danny Swafford, and George Hoblitzell.

BESSEMER 7-14

The Anniston High School Bulldogs won the second half of this Bulldog-Tiger football game by 7-0 but, unfortunately Bessemer already had 14 points on the scoreboard.

Eddy Ogar and Ronald Peak were two of the many who gave outstanding performances on a muddy field the night of November 1.

After a scoreless first quarter, Bessemer roared over the field collecting 14 points in the next 12 minutes.

Anniston collected its only touchdown of the night when Bessemer fumbled on the Tiger 25 yd. line. Seven plays later on the Tiger 2 yard line Ronald Peak went over right tackle for the T. D. Shull's conversion was good.

Although Anniston dominated the final quarter, fate had the final score set at 14-7.

TALLADEGA 14-20

Four promising drives, belonging to Anniston, were killed tonight. This was the game for the Bulldogs as Talladega slipped past the Bulldogs 20-14. One fumble, two intercepted passes and a mistake from the bench told the story.

Except for two intercepted passes, Wayne Brooks gave a great performance. He connected on 7 of 16 passes for 103 yards and a T.D. He also carried on 10 plays for 51 yards. Eddy Ogar was the top rusher for the night with 76 yards on 21 trips.

John Nunnally gave an exceptionally good performance on defense. Clayton Dobbins, Danny Swafford, Don Forbus and Mack Wilson also had a good night.

The first Bulldog touchdown was set up when Jimmy Heptinstall recovered a Chandler fumble on the Talladega 31 yard line. A few seconds later Heptinstall carried the ball in the final 5 yards for a T.D. on a Brooks-Heptinstall pass. Shull's PAT was good. Talladega tied the score. After killing a Bulldog drive on the Talladega 18, Talladega went for a touchdown. The PAT was no good.

Anniston went 65 yards on plays and Shull's PAT was good. Talladega made one more T.D. and PAT.

ETOWAH 7-13

Anniston came close to knocking off a chief state power by beating Etowah. However, even with Jimmy Harrington's intercepting three passes and returning one for 65 yards, Anniston couldn't quite come through.

This, the last game of the season, was probably Anniston's best. The stars of the game were Danny Swafford, John Nunnally, George Hoblitzell, Tim McRae, Mack Wilson, Donald Forbus, and Donald Burns. McRae made his first appearance of the season after recovering from a gun shot wound.

With Peak out, Ogar was well covered and Etowah held our rushing to a minimum.

Etowah received the kick-off and several minutes later had the Bulldogs 6-0. The conversion was good. At intermission the score was 13-0 after Etowah picked up another T.D. but failed in the conversion.

During the third quarter, Harrington intercepted an Etowah pass and returned it to the Etowah 2 where Anniston collected their only T.D. of the night. Anniston's conversion was good.

Although hit hard by graduation last year, the Bulldogs managed to compile a respectable record due to determination and the excellent instructing of Coach Wells.

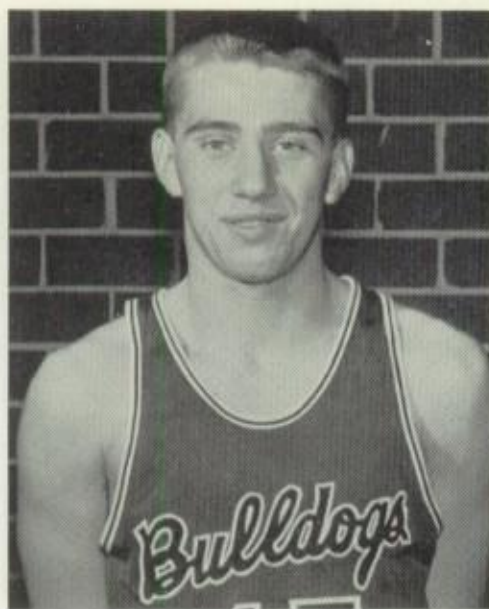

Returns from last year were Bob Coleman, Danny Hood, Wayne Brooks, Butch Wright, Keith Shull, George Hoblitzell, Tommy Doss, Jim Dozier, and Pat O'Brien.

Playing a well rounded schedule with many strong teams, our 1964 squad brought much honor to Anniston High this season.

HOLIDAY CLASSIC

"Now this is the way it is, boys . . ."

The A.H.S. basketball team, under the able direction of Coach D. Y. Johnson, achieved a very good season with a great ball team this year. The team gave fans many suspense-filled moments and exciting games, as they rolled on to collect victories and make a name for themselves throughout the state.

COACH NIX

Having completed the season with a remarkable record of sixteen wins with only one defeat, Anniston High can be proud of the many accomplishments of its B-Team.

As the record shows, this year's team, coached by Coach Nix, is considered one of the most outstanding B-Teams in many years. With such consistency in high scoring and capability in ball handling as this team possessed, the future of our Varsity shines brightly.

With such standouts as Tony Zinn, Terry Rasberry, Stanley Waits, Joe Finch, and Butch Wright our Varsity team will surely be strengthened in 1965.

The Hour Glass extends its congratulations to Coach Nix and the players for their very successful season.

Anniston High School, known throughout the state for its outstanding tennis play, has once again produced a very fine team. Led by Captain Perry Reynolds and his two younger cousins, Stuart and Walker, this year's team compiled a successful record. Our tennis team has gained much recognition by scheduling matches with several of the leading prep schools in the South. The 1964 schedule included such powers as Baylor of Chattanooga, Darlington of Rome, and Indian Springs of Birmingham. Rounding out the schedule were matches with such state powers as Tuscaloosa, and Sylacauga, along with Talledega, Gadsden, and Wedowee.

Senior members were Perry Reynolds, Greg Wooten, Tom Hall, and Richard Emerson. With such underclassmen as Stuart Reynolds, Walker Reynolds, Mike Bullen, and Winn Crawford next year's edition will prove equally strong as this year's team.

For the first time in Anniston history, members of the swimming team were seen strutting proudly around campus displaying their varsity letter sweaters. Until this year members were not allowed to become eligible for the A Club. The swimming team, organized only last year, has been handicapped by a lack of experience and top flight swimmers. However, from daily practice and determination the team, under the coaching of Sonny Statom of the Y.M.C.A., has improved tremendously over last year's team. Within a short time A.H.S. will most likely take its rightful place among top swimming teams. Until this time occurs we can look forward to the continued growth of our newly organized swim team.

Swimmers await sound of gun.

GIRLS

Anniston High School is very fortunate to have such a well rounded physical education program for girls. This program is designed to meet the individual needs of the participants through wholesome outdoor sports, indoor sports, and recreational games.

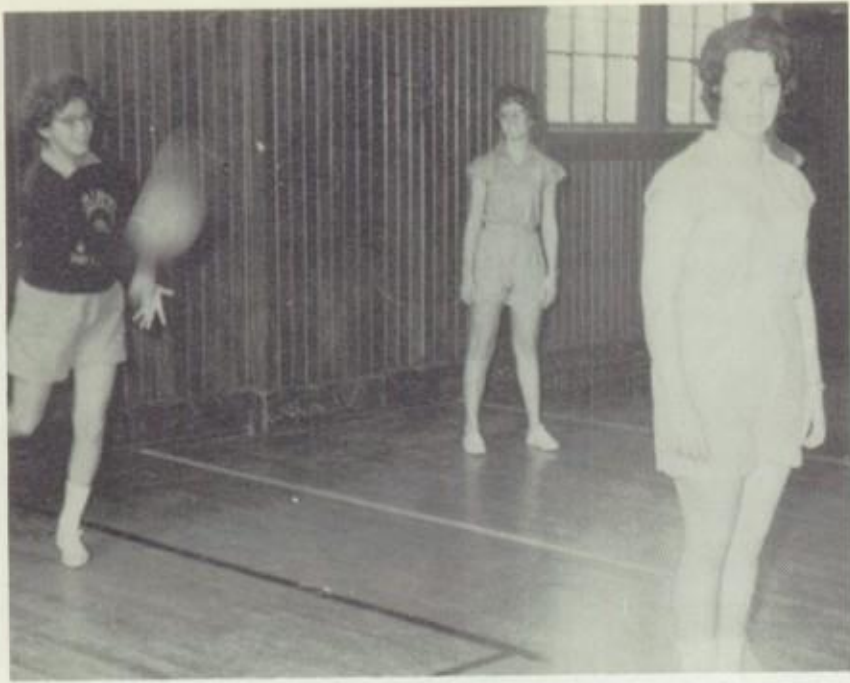

Intramural tournaments in basketball, volleyball, and ping-pong are organized through the P.E. classes under the direction of Mrs. Marbut.

Tisket, Tasket, I want a basket!

SPORTS

Other activities that the girls participate in are tumbling, dancing, badminton, and archery.

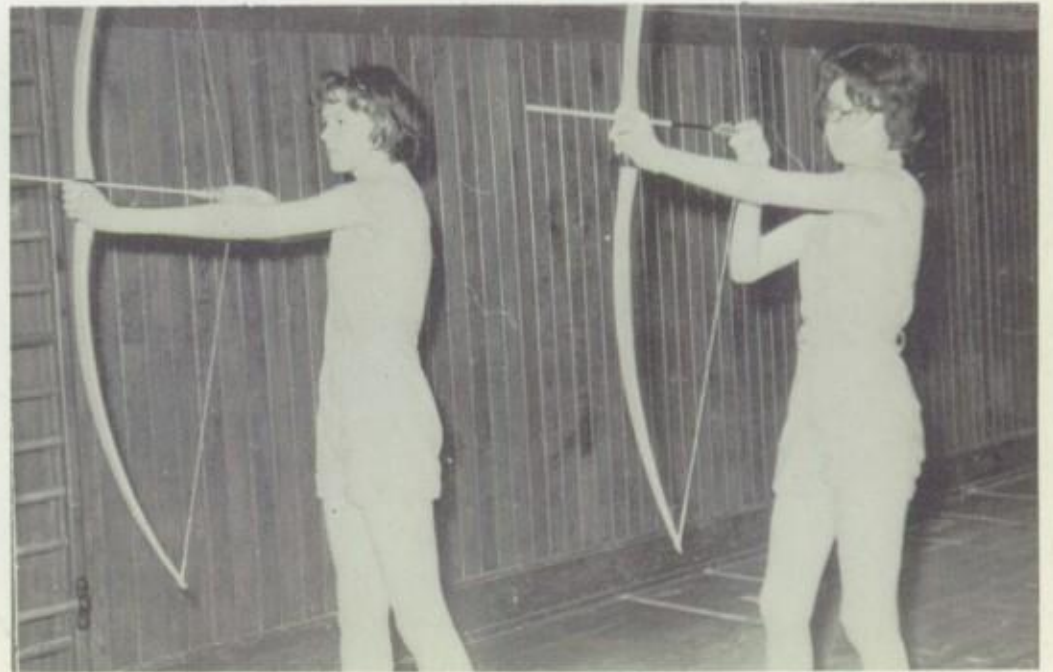

The main purpose of our having a girls' physical education course is to create an interest in physical fitness, to acquaint the girls with various athletics, and to establish an interest in competition and fair play.

Coach Marbut gives instructions.

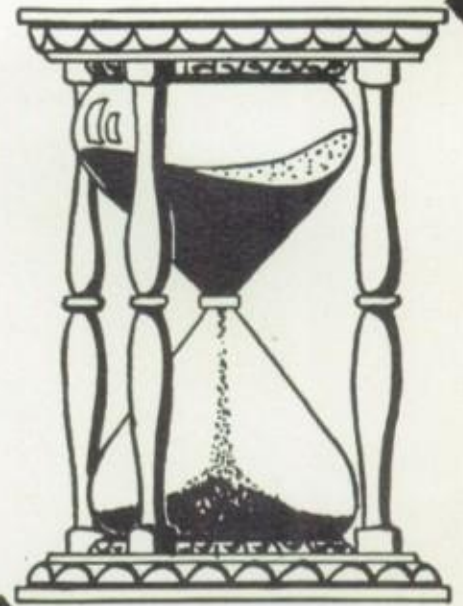

Steady girls !

An Echo Of The

ORGANIZATIONS

A wide variety of clubs and special organizations add color and interest to life at A. H. S. Some of these clubs are formed for an academic purpose. Others have community and school services as their objective and are local chapters of national organizations with high ideals and standards. Active club membership promotes leadership, responsibility, and cooperation, for each member may contribute ideas and time to club activities. The participation of each individual in club activities also promotes school spirit and affords friendly association.

HOUR GLASS STAFF

The members of the 1964 Hour Glass Staff worked hard this year preparing the annual for the students at A.H.S. They tried to include all the events of the year which were of importance and many happy and exciting events. After many hours of work the annual is finally sent to the publisher. Each member feels a great responsibility to the student body and the school. It is a thrill for the members to look at the book in which they put so much work. The staff hopes that you will receive an equal amount of pleasure from viewing the pages within the 1964 Hour Glass.

The Hi-Echo is Anniston High's student newspaper. The members of the staff work hard to bring its subscribers an interesting unbiased report of school events, articles of interest, and proper recognition of students who have received honors. Work begins in the summer when staff members start selling ads to the businessmen of Anniston. The sale of ads plus the sale of subscriptions provide the necessary funds for the paper.

In February a literary issue is published. It is composed of poems, essays, short stories, and drawings offered by students not on the staff. The entries are judged by the staff and the best ones are published.

Each year the Hi-Echo presents a good sportsmanship award. This year the award went to Danny Swafford.

The Student Council is a representative body of students who work with the faculty to improve our school. During the year it performed numerous services for the student body. At the beginning of the year the student handbook, which the members publish and the student ID card were given to the student body.

A Dutch Luncheon and training session was held for the members of the Interclub Council, which it sponsors.

At Homecoming it sponsored an Alumni Tea for the class of '39, built the Queen's float, held the parade in the morning and held the coronation ceremonies at the game.

The assembly programs which we had were planned and arranged by the council. They were especially good this year. Other activities sponsored were the annual signing party, the Teacher Appreciation Luncheon, and the coronation dance following Who's Who.

They also served the school by keeping the milk line in the lunch room and holding elections in the school.

THE INTERCLUB COUNCIL

The Interclub Council is made up of the presidents of the clubs at Anniston High School. The purpose of the organization is to co-ordinate all club activities. This work prevents duplication and conflicts in projects and other club efforts.

At the beginning of the year the Interclub council trains all of the new club officers. It sees that all clubs file a complete report after the close of all money making projects.

An award of twenty-five dollars is given to the club which sponsors the most worthwhile and unselfish projects during the year. The council encourages clubs in their projects and strives to improve the work of the school organizations.

A scene from GREEN VALLEY, the Who's Who Play.

The Thespians are one of the most active organizations in the school. It is made up of students who are interested and enjoy working in the dramatic field. One hundred hours of work is required for membership into National Thespians.

Trope 1018 sponsors many projects of interest to the student body. Among them this year were Green Valley, the Who's Who play, and the senior play.

In February two main events were on the calendar of the members. They were the County Convention and the State Convention which was held in Birmingham at Birmingham Southern College. The troupe carried a play which was presented at the State Convention.

The programs presented at the meetings were most interesting. They consisted of music, poetry, reading, skits and plays, and speakers of interest to the Thespians.

The Sophomore Apprentice Thespians are a branch of the Thespian Troope 1018. It was organized to give the many interested sophomores a chance to belong to the club.

The club has been very active this year. They helped with the Who's Who play, Green Valley, and the Senior Play. They participated in the County Dramatic Rally. At this meeting many of the members were inducted into the national society.

We can be proud to know that Anniston High School has so many students interested in the dramatic arts and can take pride in the excellent work which this new club has done.

THE "A" CLUB

President Danny Swafford
 Vice President Ed King
 Secretary David Merrill
 Treasurer Tim McRae
 Chaplain John Nunnelley

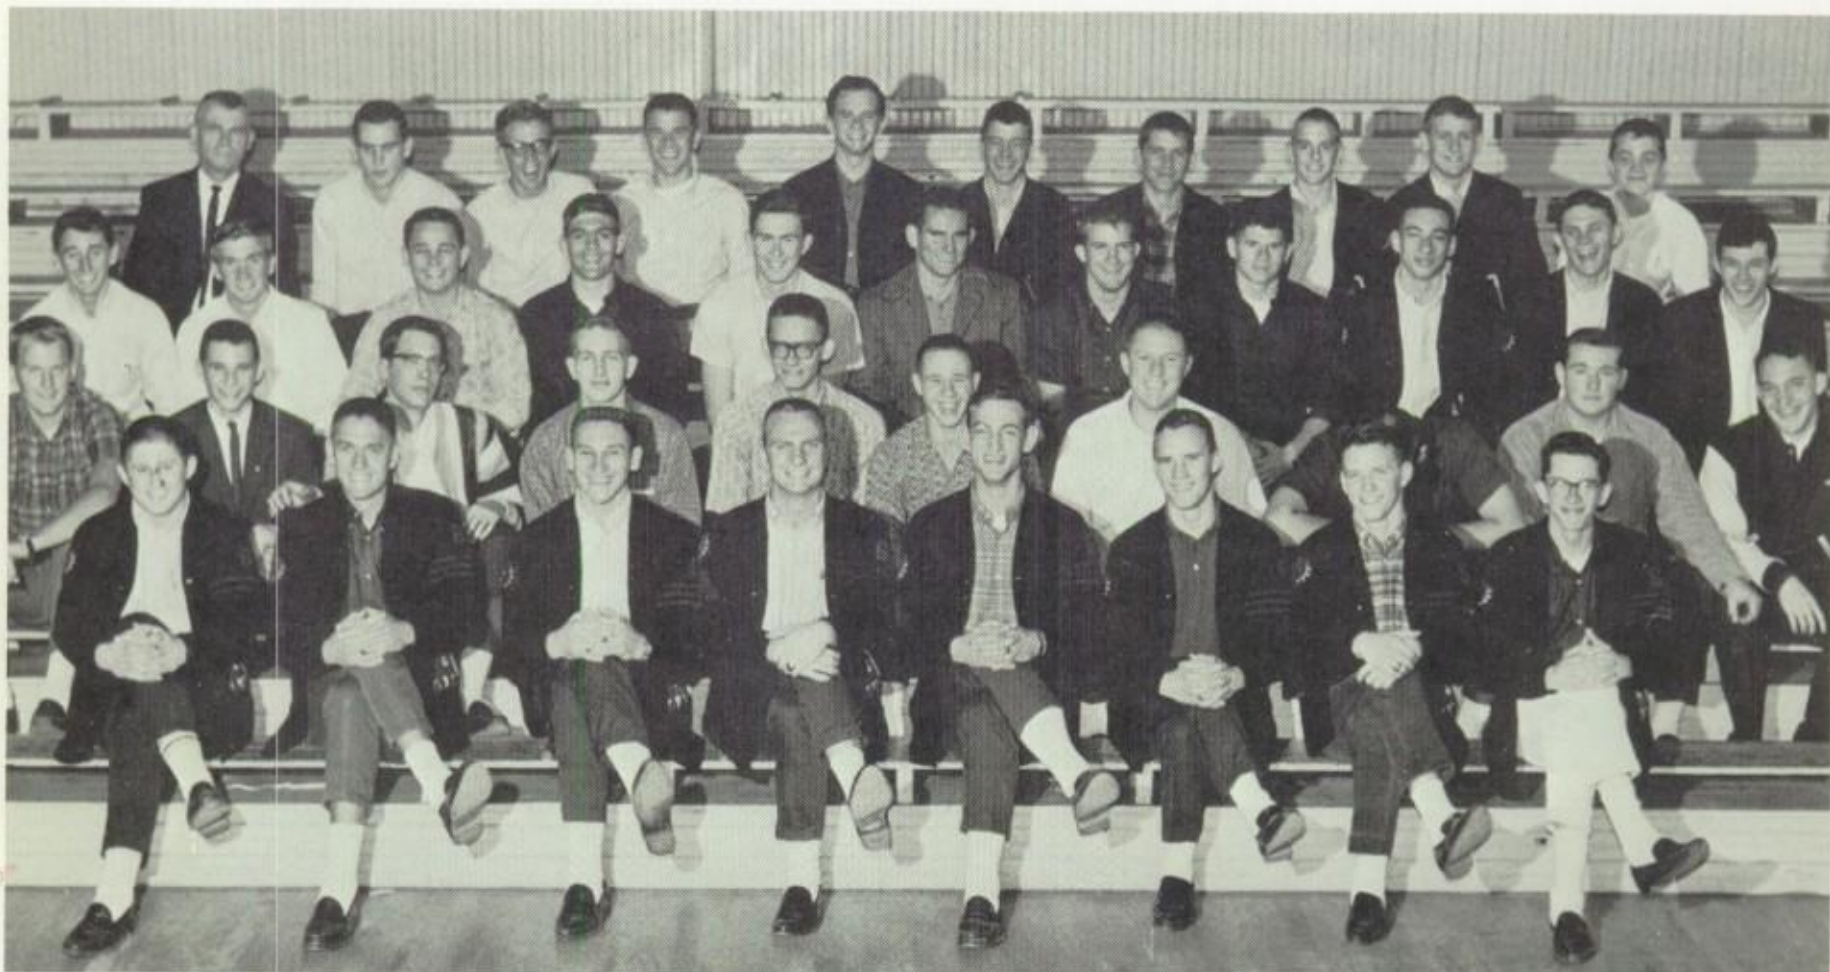

The "A" Club is made up of boys who have received their letter in some phase of the sports at A.H.S. This is a very active club sponsoring many events and activities of interest.

The "A" Club basketball team which plays in the Hi-Y basketball league lost only one game. After basketball season they also sponsored a Faculty vs. "A" Club game.

The two main social events of the year included the annual Homecoming Dance following the football game and the "A" Club Banquet in the spring. Music for the dance was supplied by the Ramrods. At the banquet varsity letters were received by all the boys who earned them. Funds were raised by holding a car wash.

Among the most interesting events sponsored were twirp season and "A" Club initiation week. Twirp season lasted three weeks this year. During initiation week one saw a variety of amusing actions performed by the "A" Club rats.

The purpose of the club is to promote good sportsmanship; this was evident by our teams spirit in the games they played.

FIRST ROW: Larry Townsend, Jimmy Hepinstall, Ed King, Danny Swafford, Tony Nunnelly, Wayne Brooks, Donald Forbus, Keith Shull. THE P.E. CLUB

The Girls' Physical Education Club is a club for girls interested in sports who have taken or are taking physical education. The club's purpose is to create an interest in fair play, maintain good health, and promote wholesome recreational activities.

The members played as independents in the school basketball league and won first place.

A dance was held at the first of the year. This was both: their money making project and their social. The money the club made was used to buy new equipment for the gym. The programs this year were especially interesting. The members heard speakers and saw films.

Officers are:

The Future Business Leaders of America Club is designed particularly for those students who are looking forward to careers in business. One of the chief objectives is to develop strong, aggressive leadership so that these future businessmen and women may participate more effectively in the business and community life of which they are a part. Members of the F.B.L.A. learn how to lead and participate in group discussions, to preside at meetings and conferences, to head and work on committee assignments, to engage in group problem conferences, and to work effectively with others in a democratic society. It also encourages participation in activities which contribute to the development of desirable leadership qualities.

Members enjoy an interesting film during their meeting.

The Home Economics Club is composed of girls who strive to be better homemakers. They want to develop better character and ability. The members learn much information from the interesting programs which are presented at the meetings. Both Speakers and demonstrators have given programs on topics of interest to the members.

As the fund raising project the girls sold candy. This is an annual project for the committee.

At Thanksgiving the club gave a food basket to a needy family. At Easter they had a project for the patients at Stringfellow Hospital. At the end of the year they gave the Home Economics Department of the school a gift which can be used by the girls who take the course.

A car was decorated and entered in the Homecoming parade. The club also had two socials for its members.

The girls have really done a good job of following their motto; "As our girlhood is, so shall our womanhood be."

HIGH SCHOOL ROBED CHOIR

MR. JACKSON
Director

The Anniston High School Robed Choir is an organization which the whole community enjoys. The members work hard during the year learning the various types of music for the programs they present.

The most active time of the year is at Christmas. This year the choir presented programs for both Anniston High School and for the Johnston Junior High School. They sang at the Exchange Club and the Salvation Army program which was held at the City Auditorium.

A program of varied music was presented at a Parent Teacher Association meeting.

Every year the choir takes part in the District Contest and hopes to make it to the State Contest. This year the choir held the contest at Anniston High School. This was a hard job but the members enjoyed meeting some of the high school students in the district.

The choir had a busy Easter Season this year also. They gave several programs for different groups.

The 1964 Bulldog Band has had a very successful season. Under the direction of the new director, Mr. Randy Quinn, the band represented our school at all football games, district and state band festivals, in assembly, and in numerous parades.

In concert the band stresses good musicianship and superior performance. In order to achieve these high standards, all band members must pass strict try outs.

Majorettes and flag bearers must be able to play an instrument. These girls must have had one year's prior experience in either the A.H.S. Band or the Johnston Jr. High School Band.

"So"

The Hi-Y Council, active throughout the year, began its work the first week of school with Hey-Day Week. This week is designed to encourage students to be friendly. The council distributed cards to wear and awarded a prize to the twentieth person speaking to Mr. and Miss Hey-Day, Judy Potter and Pat Riquetti.

Throughout the year, the morning devotionals and announcements were carried on by Hi-Y members. They also provided lunchroom music.

November was World Service month. The Hi-Y members sold candy, ribbons, and household cleaner.

The council sponsored Religious Emphasis Week, March 23-29, and co-sponsored the Easter Sunrise Service with the Anniston Ministerial Association.

Many Hi-Y members attended State Youth in Government in April and learned much about the operation of our government.

The council ended the year with the Graduation Dance.

We're ALL Kathleen Brummel girls!

The Kathleen Brummel had quite an active year. In addition to participating in the usual Hi-Y activities such as the Christmas party for underprivileged children, the Easter Sunrise Service, State Youth, and the Graduation Dance, Kathleen Brummel also sponsored a candidate for Youth Governor this year.

Among Kathleen Brummel's projects were sponsoring a needy family and giving them Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets. The sponsor of Kathleen Brummel Chapter is Mrs. Sharp.

C. HAL CLEVELAND

The C. Hal Cleveland boys have participated in a large number of activities this year. Members took part in the Christmas party at the Y.M.C.A. for the underprivileged children in the city. They sold mints, household cleaner and bags of ribbon for the World Service program. On Easter morning they helped with the Sunrise Service held at Forest Lawn Gardens. The members also helped with the graduation dance sponsored by the Hi-Y Council. For their fund raising project of the year the chapter held a car wash. These activities plus the others they sponsored this year made this a successful year for C. Hal.

LUCILLE CLEVELAND

President Joanne Traina
 First Vice President Jean Kemp
 Second Vice President Sarah Woodruff
 Treasurer Lydia Galloway
 Chaplain Kay Williams
 Secretary Carole Rozelle

The Lucille Cleveland Hi-Y chapter began the new year with a covered dish supper for the new members.

Members were very active this year sponsoring several projects. They helped the Jaycees with the pancake sale and held a softdrink bottle drive.

At the end of the year they had their annual picnic for the installation of the new officers.

The members participated in the Hi-Y basketball league for girls. They did not win all of their games but they had the best participation of any of the clubs.

The programs were very interesting this year. They included slides of Europe, programs on etiquette, and morals, a cosmetologist, and students from the International House at Jacksonville State College.

The members of Lucille Cleveland had a very successful year.

Mary Huger chapter has participated in numerous activities. At the beginning of the year the old members gave a covered dish supper in honor of the new members at the home of Mrs. Ralph Higginbotham.

World Service is considered a worthwhile project by the members of Mary Huger. The chapter won second place in the project's sale of mints, ribbons, and household cleaner.

A rummage sale was held before Christmas. The money made was given to a needy family. Other projects were sponsored by teams within the chapter.

The Friday after semester exams, the chapter enjoyed a spend-the-night party at the Worsham's cabin.

The Huger members also played in the girls' Hi-Y Basketball League. They were number one and the only undefeated girls' team.

Participation in State Youth and City Youth was also on the schedule of the members of the active chapter.

An Echo Of The

FEATURES

Fragile beauties, noble students—each having made himself outstanding in his own special way—represent high ideals. Their abilities are recognized by the faculty and their fellow classmates. These individuals are well-known for their ability to get along with people, willingness to serve, and desire to better themselves. These are our finest—Anniston's best.

Who's

Petite and perky Donna, with a twinkle in her eye, is always dressed as if she were going somewhere. John is always well-dressed no matter what the occasion may be. Impeccable taste in clothes is a quality both of them possess.

Johnny Newell Donna Routman

These two seniors were voted most popular at A.H.S. because of their vivaciousness, friendliness to all, and their likable ways. They are tops in many things.

Robert B. Smith Carole Traywick

When you think of someone that is all around, you think of someone with personality, friendliness, cuteness, ability, co-operation, and many other such characteristics. You can certainly find all of these qualities in Nancy and Jack.

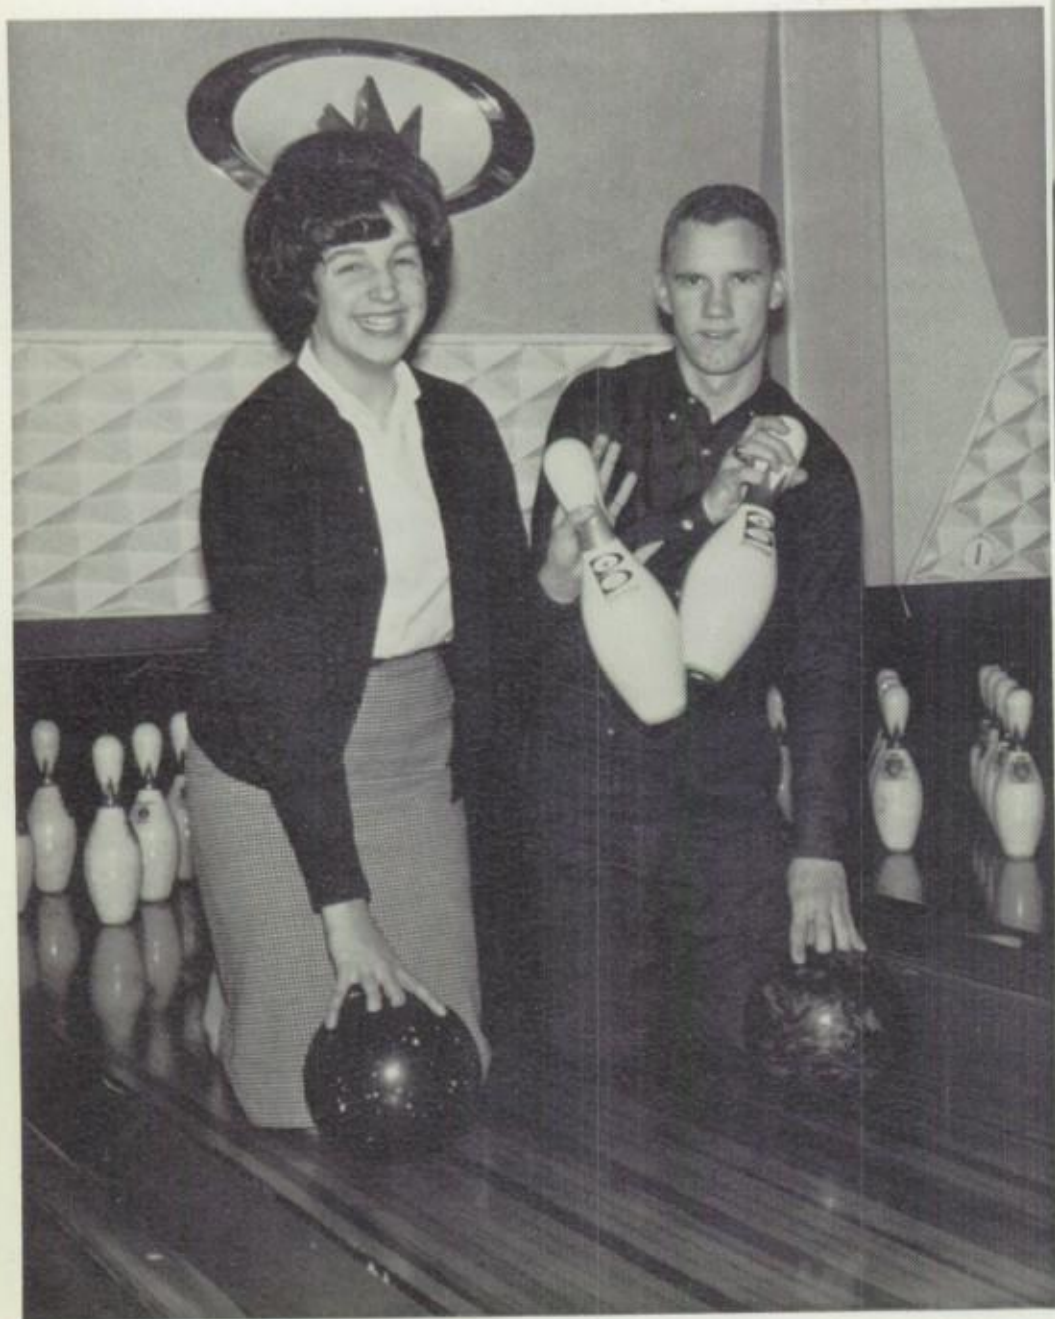

Jack Sellers Nancy Cobb

They have that type of personality that makes everyone who knows them like them, and everyone who doesn't know them want to meet them. They are both fun-loving, enthusiastic, and bubbling over with personality plus.

Nancy Turner Johnny Stanfield

Because of their musical ability and talent, Vicki and Tommy were voted most talented in our school. They are both very deserving and we have seen displays of their ability on many occasions.

Vicki Parris Tommy Key

This couple excels in varied sports around A.H.S. Mary Lou is a carefree girl who enjoys participation in all sports, especially basketball. In both football and basketball Wayne is outstanding.

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENT

Patricio Riquetti Velez became our first Foreign Exchange Student. Pat, as his American friends call him, attended A.H.S. under an American Field Service Scholarship. A native of Cunca, Equador, Pat stayed with Dr. and Mrs. Irwin M. Boozer.

Pat defines America as "a very nice place where you pay lots of income tax." To Pat, Anniston is not a common place but one that is different from other places. He looks to Anniston for "a beautiful place for relief and a nice place to spend a long part of your life."

To Pat everyone is his friend and he has tried to be a friend to everyone. We of A.H.S. hope that he will succeed in all that he attempts.

Homecoming! On Oct. 26, if you had not known it, you could have felt it in the air, or seen it in the clamor of activity that always precedes one of the biggest days at A.H.S. Classes were forgotten and books cast aside as the students eagerly participated in this big event.

For several weeks preceding the "big day" each class worked on its float with hopes of winning first place. The final week was a rush of last minute details and continuous work both day and night.

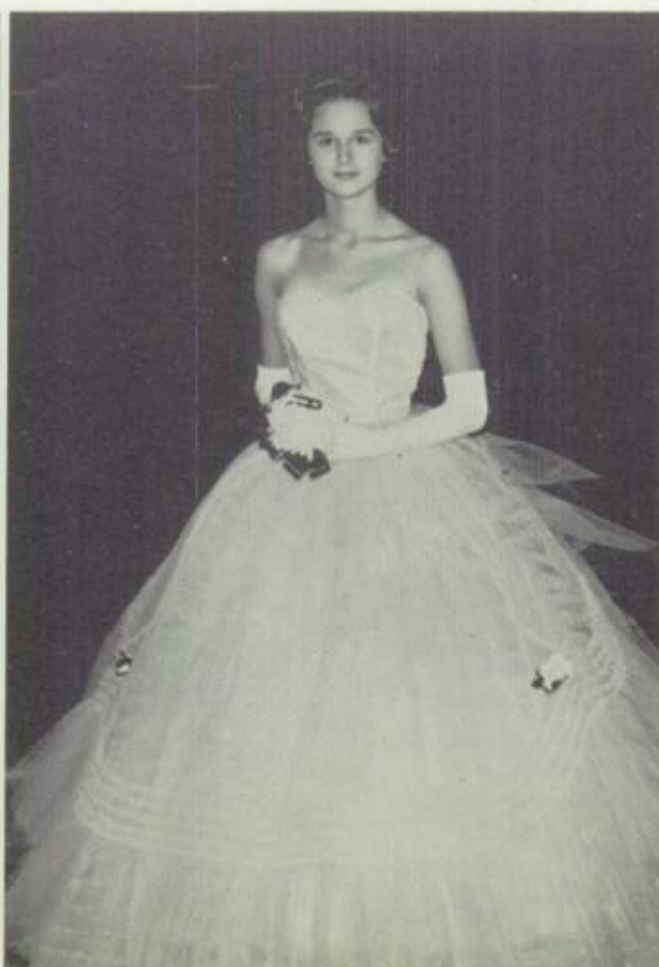

It all began with the excitement of our traditional bonfire and pep rally on Friday night. The parade Saturday morning proved to be one of the best in years, with everyone cheering the team to victory while the A.H.S. band played.

At the pre-game ceremony the Homecoming Queen and her court were presented. The Bulldogs played their best but were defeated by Gadsden. Although there was a let-down over Anniston's defeat, this homecoming will long be remembered.

An Echo Of The

ACTIVITIES

A. H. S. is made up of students whose activities form the life of the school. These students' activities build school spirit and instill in every student the desire to participate in the extracurricula aspect of school life. This attitude of participation is beneficial not only to the student but to the school as well; the school becomes not only an institution, but also a lasting influence, a symbol of togetherness, and a necessary part of daily living.

Homecoming at A.H.S. is one of the highlights of the year. The grads of 1939 were the honored class at the Alumni Tea given by the student council. The homecoming celebration began with a pep assembly Friday when Carole Traywick was announced Homecoming Queen for 1963-64. Friday night was the time of the bonfire. One could feel the excitement in the air as the kickoff drew near. Carole was crowned queen at the pre-game ceremony; however, everyone was anxiously awaiting the announcement of the float winners. The announcement that the juniors had won first place spelled defeat for the seniors and sophomores. Many hours of hard work went into each float with three fine floats as the result. We will long remember the October 26, 1963, Homecoming at A.H.S. as a treasured moment in our school life.

*A. H. S. dear Alma Mater,
Listen while we sing,
To thy feet with deep devotion,
Grateful hearts we bring.*

*Steadfast, loyal, ever true,
Through all the years, to be,
Thus we sing our hearts' allegiance,
A. H. S. to thee.*

*Though our paths of life may sever,
Though we wander far,
Still our hearts are turning ever
Where dear memories are.*
